Tragically, Narges was abducted in mid-November 2022 on Daneshjou Avenue in Mashhad.

Social media reports indicated that Narges was viciously tortured and poisoned.

On November 30, 2022, neighbors informed her family that her body had been abandoned outside their house. She did not have any IDs or phones on her. The clerical regime thus wanted to have her die outside the jail so that it would not have to account for her death. The Khorrami Fard family rushed Narges to the Nazeran Hospital in Mashhad.

At midnight, someone disguised as a doctor visited Narges and told her family that her condition was stable. He advised them to leave the hospital and return in the morning when she would be discharged.

However, the hospital staff saw two unknown men dressed as nurses enter her room and leave after some time. They reportedly gave her an injection, resulting in her death. Two hours later, her family was informed of her death.

The circumstances surrounding Narges' death were marred by intimidation as the hospital was surrounded by many security forces and vehicles belonging to the Special Guards Unit. The family was threatened to remain silent about Narges' death.

.According to the reports published on the social network, Narges was severely tortured and poisoned with poisonous substances

On December 9, 1401, the neighbors informed his family that he was left in front of the house, with a half-lifeless body and without a mobile phone or any documents with him. The regime wanted this murder not to happen in prison so that they would not be held responsible.

His family took Narges Khorrami Fard to Nazeran Hospital in Mashhad. At midnight, the doctor who visited her assured her family that her condition was stable and asked them to leave the hospital and return in the morning to discharge Nargis.
